https://www.newspapers.com/image/404773589

MIDDLEBURY, VERMONT, FRIDAY, JUNE 25, 1915

SUCCESSFUL COMMENCEMENT.

Large Attendance and Enthusiastic Gatherings, Sixty-nine Members in Graduating Class. Ex-Governor Mead Presents a Chime of Bells.

LARGEST CLASS GRADUATED

CHIME OF BELLS

Years of Service. Darwin P. Kingsley and Rev. John W. Chapman, '79, Among the Recipients.

115th Commencement of Middlebury College. Trustees, Faculty, and candi- Loaf Tuesday and was greeted with dates for honorary degrees made a body prolonged applause. Dr. Mead testified of about fifty on the platform. The to his great satisfaction in making the procession from the campus was the gift and urged others to do what they longest since the centennial of 1900 and nearly the entire body of the church time. His letter was as follows:had to be reserved for alumm and members of the graduating class.

The day was cool and the exercises was excellent, the subjects of the speakers being interesting to all.

The bestowal of the degree of Doctor of Letters upon Professor Charles B. Wright, who completes this year thirty to him and to nearly every one pres- would convey a helpful message to a Thomas spoke as follows:

President Hamlin you left the company and become in time one of the most of the first students of Johns Hopkins hallowed memories of Middlebury Col-University to begin your work as a lege. If acceptable to the Board of teacher at Middlebury College. A large Trustees, Mrs. Mead and I would be fraction of our living graduates have pleased to add a chime of bells to our been your pupils. They have learned grir of the Mead Memorial Chapel.' from you to think clearly, to express Professor Wright Honored for 30 An Additional Gift from the Donor of the Mead Memorial Chapel.

A pleasant surprise of Alumni Day was the announcement of the gift of The old Congregational church was ex-Governor and Mrs. John A. Mead of taxed to its capacity Wednesday morn- a chime of bells for the new Mead ing for the culminating exercises of the Memorial chapel. The letter in which he made the gift was read at Bread could for the college during their life-

"There is one matter in connection with the new chapel which has not yet been determined, that of a bell. I have were most enjoyable. The program been considering this subject carefully for some time and I feel it would be very appropriate to have a chime of bells, distinctive from anything in the village and or sufficient compass to sound out over the campus and village the beautiyears of service as a teacher of English ful hymns associated with Christian Literature at Middlebury, was a surprise worship. I feel that such a chime ent. In conferring the degree President great many who would never come within the walls of the chapel, as well "Thirty years ago by invitation of as to successive generations of students,

J

b

m n

h e

CHIME OF BELLS PURCHASED.

Ex-Governor John A. Mead of Rutland has signed a contract for the construction of a chime of bells to be placed in the tower of the Mead Memorial chapel. The chimes will be cast by Meneely & Co. of Watervliet, N. Y., a firm of many years successful experience. There will be eleven bells, the largest weighing 2500 pounds and the smallest 275 pounds. Any ordinary church tune or secular air can be played on the chime. Each bell will have an inscription of presentation by Governer and Mrs. Mead, with a stanza of Tennyson,—

"Ring in the valiant man and free, The larger heart, the kindlier hand; Ring out the darkness of the land, Ring in the Christ that is to be."